Newitt-Barlow.

The marriage of Miss Kate Ethel Newitt and John Q. Barlow took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Mark's cathedral. Rev. D. Douglas Wallace officiating. The ceremony was witnessed only by the immediate family. The bride wore a handsome tailor-made gown of gray broadcloth, with hat to match, and carried bride roses. She had no attendants.

Following the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents on East Brigham street. The table was adorned with bride roses and carnations. Covers were laid for ten.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. B. Newitt. She is a graduate nurse of St. Mark's hospital, and has a large circle of friends. The groom is a division engineer of the Oregon Short Line, with headquarters at Pocatello.

The happy couple left last evening for Denver and other Colorado points, after which they will go to Pocatello, where they will make their home.

At Dinner.

SOME LARGE REDUCTIONS

IN CARPETS, RUGS, DRAPERIES.

We have been for a very long time anticipating enlarged quarters for the Carpet Store. Space now given it covers almost entire basement floor, and this week we ask you to come see some beautiful new goods—Carpets, Rugs and Draperies that have just come in, also to find rare bargains along these lines, brought to light while the moving and enlarging time was on. A cleaning up of all the old stock—which isn't really old, when you remember that twice each year there's a drastic riddance sale—to start in new store with new goods, as well as to keep a store custom of clearance at this season. ## $2.75 Black Crepons--$1.65.

New—just fresh from the factory; sent along by our Dress Goods buyer now in the east. When will the popularity of these beautiful fabrics wane? Not very soon, we think, at least it looks that way to those in a position to know and right now in with listening to fashion's dictates. They send word the furor for them waxed greater and greater and mills are put to fullest test, supplying the demand. Small wonder, we think, for never was there more clever and handsome textile weavings than shown in Crepons. Come see these we've just taken out of packing cases, some, which, through buying up the entire lot, we got at a "price." All wool Mohair, the dye an exquisite, perfect black, the patterns soufflé, blister and stripe effects. They would have to be, if bought in the regular way, sell for $2.75 a yard, but a bargain for us is one for you, so

One Dollar and Sixty-five Cents.

35c and 40c Handkerchiefs--19c.

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday.

Simply for stock straightening do we sell these at a loss. Moving revealed far and away too many and so a three days' sale to lower the number. Handkerchiefs are perfect, of sheer Swiss with deep embroidered border, very pretty. Regular 35c and 40c Women's Handkerchiefs for three days 19c

Shoes--Excellent Values

Women's box calf storm Shoes with hand-sewed extension soles, Kripendorf & Dittman make. Not a thing wrong with the Shoes as the makers' name testifies, we are just lowering winter stocks; worth $4.00 $2.35

Men's patent leather Shoes for dress or street wear, hand sewed soles, worth $4.00. $2.25

Infants' fine Kid Shoes, hand turned soles, worth 65c. 45c

CUT FLOWERS.

Leave orders with us for Cut Flowers. We have our own Hot Houses where blooms are given best care of first class floriculturists. Flowers are freshly cut when ordered.

Silk Stockings--Half Price.

Wednesday and Thursday.

These are the French made Silk Stockings, purest of silk, with double woven heels and toes. Every size is here and nearly all the dainty shades, and fancy drop stitch kinds as well as plain; not many blacks, though—there's the reason for half price. One bright woman said she expected to buy a lot and have them dyed. You might do so, but would never give us such a thing. Regular price $3.00 a pair, Wednesday and Thursday $1.50

Also some opera length silk Hosiery for women, all shades, white, pink, blue and black, $4.00 a pair values, at a closing price $2.50

Men's $1.25 to $2.00 Hats--98c.

A gathering of Men's Hats, all good qualities, but broken lines. Some stiff Hats, Fedoras and railroad Greco, that sell at regular for $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, and $2.00. All bunched at one price and your pick of any for 98c

Fur Clearance.

Prices low enough to make an interesting time this week in fur selling. Our policy of clearing out each season's goods in order to enter the next with new, is so well established as to need no comment. We expect to pay 75 to 100 per cent more for furs next winter than we did this—so will you, then, of course. So note how cheap in comparison are these with heavy reductions added.

Electric Seal Collarettes, long tab front with tails, regular prices $3.75 to $5.00; for clearance $2.98

Sealette Collarettes, trimmed with Chinilla, well lined, regular prices $7.50 to $8.75. $5.98

St. Mary's Blankets--15 per cent Off.

About 50 pairs here we would rather not give storage room; fact is, we haven't it. They are in natural gray and tan colors with pretty fancy borders, best of pure wool Blankets, as you probably know, for no Blankets made are superior to St. Mary's. Prices on them if we went into the market today, would be a third higher, so that with this reduction taken from old prices, they are really about half under their real value, $5.00 to $15.00 a pair

Needlework Odds and Ends.

The east window will hold a lot of art needlework odds and ends this week, such as Table and Bureau Covers, Piano Drapes, Banners, Linen pieces and many other worked novelties that have been gleaned from the stock to sell while they last at

Half prices

New Idea Petticoats.

The "McGee" has an adjustable yoke which is fitted neatly about the waist, then fastened to remain always, if need be, and so no ugly bunching of gathers at the back. Come in black satens, mercerized satens and moreens, also in the fancy colors. Prices $2.25 and up to $6.75
